

Biography

Fayez Alsharef

Fayez Alsharef began his career with Saudi Aramco in 2002 and before that he worked with SABIC for nine years.

At Saudi Aramco he served in various leadership roles in the areas of operations and business development, including leading the commercial team responsible for the establishment of Sadara..

He was Vice President, Chemicals Sales and Marketing at Aramco Trading Company from January 1st 2014 to October 2015, after which he moved to become the manager of Domestic Sales and Logistics Department responsible for Saudi Aramco's domestic sales of all feedstocks and fuels.

On April 1, 2016, Fayez Alsharef became Chief Procurement Officer of ARLANXEO.

April 2016